LECTIO DIVINA

Read: The wise men make their journey from the East to search for the infant King of the Jews. They recognize God's hand at work in his universe and seek to understand the signs of the times. Their search leads them to find the true morning star: Christ, the light of all the nations.

Reflect: Epiphany means manifestation or revelation. "The heavens declare the glory of God", and by the light of the star the little child of Bethlehem is revealed as Lord and Saviour of all peoples. Christ's mission of salvation excludes no one. This is a cause of great joy for the Magi, and they worship him. In contrast, this is a cause of fear and resentment in the heart of King Herod, as he sees the Christ-child as a threat to his earthly power rather than welcoming him as the longed-for Saviour.

Pray: Ask for the wisdom and insight to see God at work in your life. Welcome Christ as your King. Worship him as Lord and God. Unlike Herod, do not be afraid to give Christ first place in your life.

Act: The Magi offered gifts to Jesus, recognizing his divine dignity. May we recognize the presence of Christ in the needy, acknowledging their God-given dignity by giving them something of our time, of our possessions and our solidarity.
